

Thanks to Jim and the team at
Alveston Youth Hostel

Thanks also to the production company:

Sunbeam: returning from a tour of MG Owners Club circuits, Le Mann and East Kennett to produce the bike ride and walk ensuring all the cast arrive at the same time for lunch at the Shakespeare Inn.

Dr Doolittle: rising from his sick bed to assist with the planning & production of this two day tour.

Bonio: general dogs-body hoping no one gets lost & that everyone has a good time.

North Wilts Hash House Harriers Touring Company

Presents

"As You Bike It"

18th to 20th April 2014

YHA Alveston, Hemmingford House
Alveston, Stratford Upon Avon
CV37 7RG

Shakespeare

Act 1 – from 6.00pm

Follow the trail to a local hostelry (1/2 mile from the YHA) and meet your friends for the making of merriment, eating of good food and the drinking of local ale. Meals cost from £11.00

The Ferry, Ferry Lane, Alveston,
CV37 7QZ : Tel 01789 269883

Act II – 11.00am

‘As you bike it’ around Stratford and the surrounding area. Meet at Shakespeare’s Statue, Gower Memorial Gardens. Fair maidens who wish for a more leisurely mode of travel meet at the same statue for a gentle stroll to a local hostelry and meet up with your fellow travellers. Lunch at the table of The Shakespeare for locally produced food & ale. Walkers take the bus back to Stratford

The Shakespeare Inn, Chapel Street,
Welford Upon Avon CV37 8PX. Tel: 01789 750030

Shakespeare

Act III – 8.00pm

The Banquette produced by the fair Jim, chef extraordinaire, using locally produced food and the sale of Hook Norton Ales for our enjoyment. Musicians and actors are welcome to entertain the peasants with the playing of musical instruments or the speaking of English prose.

Act IV – 10.30am

A live run or a gentle walk around the fair village of Alveston in the footsteps of Shakespeare and search for those hidden treasures commonly known as Easter Eggs!

Act V – 1.00pm

Travel to that distant land called Wiltshire and rest from the toil of having fun!

Thanks for joining in the festivities
and have a Happy Easter!

Sunbeam, Dr Doolittle & Bonio